carried only by auto drivers, clerks, etc. The 2nd Company is similarly organized and armed and is commanded by Lt. Péter Falus, 26 years old; so is the 3rd Company, commanded by Lt. Lajos Zoltán. There is a 4th Company for refresher training of reservists, of 90 to 95 men, armed with one 57 mm A/T gun, one 82 mm mortar, one 120 mm mortar, nine Degtyarev light machine guns, three Maxim heavy machine guns, five barookas and 90 machine pistols.

- 5. The 3rd Battalion, with the regimental staff, is in Eger. Including the reservists the regiment has 1,250 men. The active men are well trained and morale is not bad, although discipline is strict. Food is adequate and of medium quality. The active men belong to the classes of 1929-1932, reservists to the classes of 1924-27.
- 6. Some reservists from other arms come to the regiment for training. Emphasis among them is laid on political training and the use of heavy weapons.
- 7. The auto park at Pétervására consists of 8 jeeps, 8 or 9 passenger cars; 38 to 40 troop carriers with three axles; 16 to 18 trucks and 10 to 12 Wieppons.
- 8. The AAA barracks consists of: a two-story stone command building, 30 x 70 m; 12 one-story barracks, each 20 x 40 m; and one repair shop, 40 x 45 m. At this barracks is an AAA section (Abteilung) of over 600 men, divided into three batteries. Each battery has six 37 mm automatic guns.
- 9. At the camp there are three underground concrete munitions bunkers, each 10 x 15 m. end -
